1740. 1639.

Following arrived the Mails due from Holland, France, and Flanders.

Ispahan, March 2.

THAMAS Kouli-Kan did not return hither from his Expedition against the Emperor of Mogul, till last Month. By the Treaty he concluded with him, the Great Mogul gives him the Title of King of Kings, King of Time, the Refuge of the Mahometans, the Successor and Imitator of Alexander. He takes Notice in the Preamble, that Kouli-Kan, to whom he gives the Title also of the Great Schach Nadir, had sent an Ambassador to him, whom he did his utmost to discomfit as soon as possible: And, says he, "the Schach Nadir should not have been oblig'd to have sent Mahomet Kantour-Kan to me, if it had not been for the Negligence of my Ministers, who always delay'd giving an Answer to the Ambassador; chusing rather to embroil the Two Governments; and to let them at variance, than to do what I order'd them. This was the Reason that Schach Nadir, desirous to find his Ambassadors not return'd, resolv'd to come himself into my Dominions: The Consequence of which was that we were defeated: Victory inclin'd to his Side, and Fortune favour'd him to such a Degree, as to render him Master of my Empire. He enter'd Dely and took it. He made sure of my Person, and took all my Jewels and Diamonds: He has moreover demand'd of me, that I should give him a List of my Revenues. But having promised me to restore me to my Throne, I declare him the Lawful and Sovereign Lord of all my Territories situate on the West Side of the Country of Noudbeck, of the Sea of Snide, of the River of Sangora, of Chaour, of the District of Caboul, of the Mountains of Pattan and Jat, of the Fortres of Yoxel, Coudabar, and all the Dependencies on Patta and Tatta, reserving to myself all the Empire of Indostan." This Surrender includes all the Country from Candahar to the River Indus.

The following is an exact Inventory of the Booty Kouli Kan has brought home; viz. The Elephants, Camels, Artillery, Tents, and Ammunition, amount to the Value of 3 Courons; the Roupies of Gold and Silver taken out of the Royal Treasury, to 15 Courons; the Rings and Jewels of all Sorts, to 8 Courons; the Emperor's Bed of State, adorn'd with Precious Stones, to 4 Courons; an Imperial Throne, adorn'd all over with Diamonds, to 9 Courons; the Balons, and other like Utensils, adorn'd also with Precious Stones, to 11 Courons; the ready Money and Jewels taken from the Emperor's Wives and Children, to 3 Courons; the Plunder of the City of Dely, to 20 Courons; the extraordinary Tax imposed upon the Inhabitants, to 20 Courons; what was exacted from the Onquils, and other Persons in the Service of the Omrags, the Nabals, and the Rajas, to 10 Courons; what Camordi-Kan the Emperor's Favourite was oblig'd to give, to 16 Courons; which with what arose from the Estates of 4 other Ministers and Favourites of the Great Mogul, who were put to Death at the Desire of Kouli Kan, amounts to 111 Courons. Now the Couron is valued at 20 Millions of Roupies, and every Roupie at 50 Sols French Money; so that the whole is computed at Two thousand Seven hundred Seventy five Millions of Livres; which reckoning the Livre at 20 d. amounts to above 40 Millions of Pounds Sterling; the greatest Sum of which was taken from the City of Dely. This would hardly be credible, if the Wealth of Indostan was not sufficiently known, and that its Manufactures and Commodities did not bring into the Country very great Sums every Year from Asia and Europe, which never go out of the Country. Kouli-Kan has moreover imposed an Annual Tribute upon the Great Mogul of 3 Courons, which is near 5 Millions and half Sterling. He has also fix'd the Maintenance of that Prince's Court at 8430000 l. Sterling.

This sudden Revolution, which is scarce to be parallel'd in History, was owing to the bad Government of the Empire of Mogul, where the People groan'd under the Oppression of the Grandees, and where the Emperor, a Prince who was weak to the last Degree, and minded nothing but his Pleasures, left the Government entirely to the Care of Candorem and Camordikan his Two Favourites, who aim'd at nothing but the amassing of Wealth. The Government had no Forces to support it, because the Generals, whose Business it was to keep them up, put the Sums appropriated for that Purpose in their own Pockets. The Rebels on the Side of Malabar and Ceromandel, came like an Army into the Heart of Indostan, where they met with such small Resistance as demonstrated how easy it would be to invade the Empire; and while Kouli-Kan was extending his Conquests with an Army of 80000 Horse, and 20000 Foot, brave and well disciplin'd Soldiers, furnish'd with 250 Pieces of Cannon, the Emperor indulg'd himself at Dely in full Security, thinking he had done enough by having rais'd an Army of 200000 Horse, and 500000 Foot, besides 5000 Elephants acoutred for War, and 8000 Pieces of Cannon; but it was an Army rais'd in Haste, and absolutely in Want of every Thing. The Battle fought the 22d of February, 1739. which cost the Lives of 100000 Men, and a Part of the Emperor's Family, was decisive of the Fate of this Prince, and secur'd the Empire to Kouli Kan, who by virtue of the Treaty above-mention'd, call'd it to Mahomet. While Kouli Kan stay'd at Dely he caus'd Money to be coin'd there, with an Inscription signifying, Schach Nadir is born to be King of the World. He is the King of Kings.

Vienna, Sept. 14. A Place is to be set apart in the Neighbourhood of this City, where the Turkish Ambassador may hunt as often as he will. All the Turks of his Retinue drink Wine without the least Scruple, inasmuch that rather than go without it they call for it. A Statue of the late Prince Eugene cut in white Marble as big as the Life, and which was carv'd at Dresden by the famous Statuary Balthazar, is erected in his Garden, and is very much admir'd by good Judges of Sculpture. It cost 7000 Florins, or 345 l. Sterling.

Hanover, Sept. 9. O. S. On the 5th came very important Dispatches from my Lord Waldegrave, his Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, which the Lord Harrington carry'd to the King the next Morning at 6 o'Clock, and had a long Conference thereupon with his Majesty. The King of Prussia is gone from Cleves for Berlin, but we hear he paid a Visit by the Way to the Duke and Duchess of Brunswick.

She was taken the Day after the former, on her Return from a Cruise, in which she had not taken any Prize. Letters of the 27th ult. O. S. from Rome, and of the 5th inst. from Dresden say, Couriers are arriv'd there from Naples with News that the Queen of the Two Sicilies was brought to Bed of a Prince on the 26th ult. O. S. That the Order of the Golden Fleece is sent by the King of Spain to the Constable de Colonna; and that the Pope has receiv'd the usual Tribute of the Nag and 12000 Crowns, which were presented to him by the said Constable on his Knees, in the Name of the King of the Two Sicilies, but the Prefectors of the Apostolical Chamber enter'd their Protest, because the Constable in the Speech he made did not mention Sicily.

Those of the 17th Instant from Paris say, that the French are repairing the Fortifications of the Town and Castle of Brest, and that by the Fire which happen'd at the Convent of the Augustin Monks in that City, the great Dormitory, with a large Hall and a Barn, are entirely consum'd, and that the Damage thereby sustain'd is computed at 40000 Livres.

Letters of the 9th O. S. from Berlin say the King of Prussia has issued a Proclamation, that all Persons that have an Income to live upon who shall repair to that City to settle there, shall be free from all Taxes whatsoever, both they and their Domesticks, for the Space of Two Years; and that his Majesty has permitted the Roman Catholics to build a Church there for the free and publick Exercise of their Religion.

Those of the 25th ult. from Madrid mention nothing more material, than that the late Duke of Ormond has receiv'd a considerable Sum from the Treasury, in part of Arrears due to him; and that the Court has given Leave to the principal Merchants of Naples to send every Year two Ships to trade to the West Indies, as soon as a Peace is concluded with England.

They add from Paris, that the King has confirm'd the vacant Archbishoprick of Lyons upon the Cardinal de Tencin.

Letters of the 11th from Liege say, the Bishop has sent two of his chief Officers to wait upon the King of Prussia for accommodating the Affair of Herfial, the Maintenance of the Prussian Troops, who live at Rock and Manger in his Country, amounting to near 240 l. Sterling every Day: And those of the 13th from the Hague say, that the Bishop's Resident there has deliver'd a Letter from his Master, desiring the States General to use their Good-offices with the King of Prussia to prevail on him to withdraw his Forces who consist of 2000 Men, and, as we are inform'd from Maastricht, notwithstanding the Allowance of 12 Sols a Day for each Soldier by the States of the Country, and to the Officers in Proportion, have demand'd a Contribution of 4000 Pistols, and threaten, in case of Refusal, to send for a Reinforcement of Moutbs to eat them out of House and Home.

Letters of the 23d ult. from Petersburg say, the Czarina has caus'd it to be notify'd to all the Foreign Ministers, that she has put off her intended Journey to Moscow for this Year.

On Saturday Morning last Mr. Griffith, one of his Majesty's Messengers, was dispatch'd from the Duke of Newcastle's Office to the King at Hanover.

On Friday last the Coroner's Jury sat on her Body, but not agreeing in their Verdict, they adjourn'd to the 10th of October next.

By an Account from Dunkirk we learn, that Charles Knowles, Esq; commonly call'd Earl of Banbury, died there the 16th of August last, in the 78th Year of his Age: He has left only one Son, Charles, (by his second Wife) who is in Holy Orders, and resides at Black-bourton in Oxfordshire; his elder Brother, Lord Viscount Wallingford, Member of Parliament for Banbury in the same County, and Major to the first Troop of Horse-Guards, died the 16th of June last without Issue. In the Year 1692-3 he was indicted for killing Philip Lawson, Gent. by the Name of Charles Knowles, Esq; and the Lord Chief Justice Holt refused to try him, being a Peer; and the House of Lords at that time would not allow his Peerage; so he was bail'd, and never try'd at all.

The most Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hystrick Disease or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but their reason, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confus'd with terrible Perturbations, Anxieties, and Dependency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost insupportable Ailments.

'Tis surprising to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwell upon the soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of cheerful Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are fully reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, ready, serene, and gay, I thought, that as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Imaginations, as before, they were hopeless of ever gaining any more.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRICK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTRICK DISEASE, or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexpressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, 1 Dose of it is a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADECLIFF'S Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.
